

Borgarstjórnin í Reykjavík

28 November, 2017

Michael Stuart Garfinkle, PHD
Psychologist/Psychoanalyst
80 University Place, 5C
New York, NY 10003-4564

Dear Mr. Michael Stuart Garfinkle,

Re. Bid to host the conference Psychoanalysis on Ice Two in 2018

It is with great pleasure that the City of Reykjavik supports the proposal that Iceland will host the conference Psychoanalysis on Ice Two in 2018.

It is our belief that Reykjavik provides the perfect venue for this conference. Every year, Reykjavik hosts countless numbers of international conferences and conventions. Reykjavik offers an excellent infrastructure and access to cutting-edge technology.

The city centre is small and manageable, and packed with restaurants and cultural events. It is easy to navigate, and distances between most hotels and conference venues are easily covered within 10 minutes.

The City of Reykjavik finds it important to attract your conference Psychoanalysis on Ice Two, as our capital is now established as a viable and interesting conference city. Therefore, the City of Reykjavik wholeheartedly supports the Icelandic bid.

We look forward to welcoming the Psychoanalysis on Ice Two in 2018.

With our greatest expectations and kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dagur B. Eggertsson
Mayor of Reykjavík